Svetogorsk mill volunteers hold an open class for children

Svetogorsk – July 25, 2018 – International Paper Russia volunteers held an open class for children at the Svetogorsk library. The class was dedicated to 20 years of International Paper’s operations in Russia. 23 children attended the class.

During the open class, Svetogorsk mill volunteers told children about the products that International Paper produces, how paper and board are used, what is sustainable development and social responsibility. At the end of the class, International Paper volunteers gave away souvenirs produced for “Helping children is a big deal” social campaign organized in partnership with Gift of Life charity fund.

Such open classes regularly take place at the Svetogorsk library during summer holidays as a part of summer camps’ programs for children of Svetogorsk municipality. During the classes, children get a chance to meet and talk to local experts from different institutions as well as to expand their horizons and learn a lot.

Svetlana Karpova, librarian, commented:
“Summer is a holiday season, but even during the holidays our children continue their educational process and have a chance to learn a lot. We value such open classes like today’s and appreciate the work of Svetogorsk mill volunteers.”
