

IP's Largest . . . Your Protein Packaging Partner

Here for You

Supported by the largest network of box and specialty packaging plants in the U.S., our local team is ready to serve your needs.

Our capabilities and expertise make us the ideal partner for reliably, sustainably and creatively packaging your tomorrow.

Capabilities to Meet Your Needs

- Dedicated customer service consultants
- Award winning design consultants
- Best in class quality and reliability systems
- Mechanical packaging experts optimize and troubleshoot your workflow

Commitment to Sustainability

Our sustainability goals reflect who we are as a company, our values and our commitment to building a better future for people and the planet.

Healthy and abundant forests

Renewable solutions

Sustainable operations

Thriving people and communities

Here for Your Business

When you need to win new business, grow your revenue and improve your margins, we have solutions to help you get there.

What Makes Us Unique

- Brand new state-of-the-art sustainable packaging plant located in the heart of the Midwest
- Machines equipped with advanced quality systems
- On-site design and testing labs
- Regional warehousing to extend shipping lanes
- Diverse manufacturing capabilities to accommodate all needs
- Inventory programs and visibility systems

Our Midwest Locations

At the heart where you need us most

